ASIA -Bhutan

Tucked between Tibet and India, Bhutan boasts of the country's "gross national happiness." With a little something for everybody, Bhutan offers peaked trails amidst epic Himalayan landscape for trekkers to enjoy a bit less crowded experience than its neighbors offer in Nepal or Tibet. The traditional architecture and abundant wildlife such as the rare snow leopard draw photographers to capture the special moments, year-round. Buddhist festivals and fortress monasteries offer culture experiences to explore.

Falconry of Kings

Explore falconry, the most ancient and aristocratic sport of kings. Instructors from the internationally renowned British School of Falconry will teach the basic skills and techniques of this fascinating sport. After donning the supplied jacket, boots and falconer's glove, get up close and personal with one of the magnificent Harris hawks, learning the essential techniques of working these stunning birds of prey. During the hunting season there's the chance to develop skills further, flying the birds for prey on one of the nearby estates - a breath-taking way to celebrate the traditions of the Scottish countryside.

EXPERIENCE THIS IN...

Even within a small area, Scotland has astonishing variety. From the North Sea to Irish Sea and Highlands to Lowlands, the landscapes of Scotland may take your breath away with its lush woodlands, windswept moors and lochs as deep as the imagination. Edinburgh is a...

Day 1: After missing your connecting flight in Frankfurt, finally arrive to Rome, collect your luggage and pass through customs then join the taxi queue to arrange a ride to your hotel, check into your hotel then wander the hallways looking for your room only to discover that it overlooks an alleyway with construction happening in the building across the street

Trip Planning With River Oaks Travel

Day 1: Arrive to Rome, meet your private driver outside of customs and enjoy a leisurely ride to your hotel, check in and be escorted to your room where you find a bottle of wine, small snack and welcome note from the River Oaks Travel Team waiting for you, enjoy the bottle of wine while gazing across Rome

Day 2: Wake up and make your own way to join a group of 30 other tourists for a 2-hour generic tour of the Vatican, before being able to enter you must wait in line for 2 hours in order to buy tickets

Day 2: Meet your private guide and driver in the lobby of the hotel, they provide you with skip the line tickets so you are able to immediately enjoy a 4-hour tour of the Vatican and Vatican City that is personally curated to your interests, afterwards enjoy a pizza making class and a gelato tasting before returning to your hotel

Day 3: You've splurged today on a private guided tour of the Colosseum that you found on an online marketplace. Once you meet you guide, you realize that he's friendly but his English is not so great and he is not as knowledgeable about Roman history as his profile led you to believe. You spent hours at the Colosseum and all you got out of it was a photo.

Day 3: Meet your vetted expert guide in the lobby of the hotel to head out to your tour of the Colosseum, Forum and other Roman sites. She is a historian and really brings to life the history in front of you. Since you have the afternoon on your own, she gives you her insider tips on the neighborhood and her favorite places for a true Italian meal.

Day 4: Check out of the hotel and take a taxi to the train station, finally figure out how train tickets work in Italy and make it on board your train to Florence where you must jostle for a seat because you don't have seat reservations, arrive to Florence and queue for a taxi to your hotel, check into your hotel and make your own way to your room

Day 4: Check out of your hotel and meet your driver in the lobby of the hotel for a quick drive to the train station where they assist you with finding the correct train car, board your train to Florence and find your assigned seats. Upon arrival in Florence, meet your private driver for a transfer to your hotel where you are pleased to discover you've been upgraded to a room with a view of the Duomo

Day 5: Meet your guide in the lobby of the hotel Day 5: Get up early and make your own way to and head off for a private tour of the Uffizi and the Uffizi and Accademia galleries, join the line to Accademia galleries, marvel at the David while get entrance tickets, 2 hours later finally get your everyone else waits in line, spend your afternoon tickets and head inside to see the David statue, wandering the markets with your guide tasting spend the rest of the afternoon wandering the local delicacies like prosciutto and parmesan and city aimlessly in search of local goods shopping for everything from handmade leather goods to local art

Day 6: Make your way to a meeting point outside of town where you join a small group for a bus tour of the Tuscan countryside and wine tasting. While the countryside is as beautiful as you expected, you spent more time on the bus than out of it. You would have loved to be able to explore more in Siena and the local wineries but the rest of the group was ready to move on.

Trip Planning With River Oaks Travel

Day 6: Meet your driver and guide in the lobby of the hotel and head of on an adventure through Tuscany, enjoy a morning exploring the nearby town of Siena with your guide then after lunch venture to a few local wineries for private tastings and tours through the vineyards before returning to your hotel in Florence

Day 7: Wake up early to check out of your hotel and take a taxi to the airport, arrive and wander through the terminal looking for your check in desk, finally get checked in and board your departure flight for home

Day 7: Wake up early to check out of the hotel and meet your driver in the lobby, during your transfer enjoy the breakfast to go that the hotel prepared for you. After a quick transfer to the airport you are dropped off immediately outside of the check in desk for your return flight. Get checked in and enjoy a morning coffee before boarding your departure flight for home
